

burnley youth theatre
presents...

the running the show

festival
2009
programme

saturday 31 october - sunday 1 november workshop choices

saturday

PHYSICAL THEATRE: Void Physical Theatre

A new and exciting company Void Physical Theatre, will be delivering a high energy workshop fusing physical theatre and contemporary dance.

MUSICAL THEATRE: Ludus Dance

Ludus Dance, Lancaster, will deliver a music theatre workshop. This will include singing and dance, concentrating on movement to show tunes.

morning

COMMUNICATION AND PERFORMANCE: Jeremy Stockwell

Jeremy Stockwell is a performance expert. He will deliver a “challenging, innovative and unique” workshop that offers a “firm foundation and clear principles for communication and performance.”

FILM MAKING: Enormous Films

Enormous films will work with a small group to create a short animation/film, that will be, potentially, shown back in the foyer of the building. There may be the opportunity to film some of the ongoing work of the festival.

PHYSICAL THEATRE: Complicite

Complicite is a London based company with a strong national reputation. The workshop will be influenced by the company’s original teachers such as Jacques Lecoq, Philippe Gaulier and Monika Pagneux, and will introduce the idea of theatre that cuts across disciplines.

BIO MECHANICS WORKSHOP: Proper Job Theatre Company

This workshop will offer an introduction to the work of Meyerhold. Bio-mechanics is a kind of theatre that ‘widens emotional potential, expresses new thoughts and ideas,’ and pushes young actors to think about how they perform.

afternoon

IMPROVISATION: Magic If

Think you've done an improvisation workshop? Think again. This workshop takes improvisers onto the next level, pushing the boundaries of what is possible.

PHYSICAL THEATRE/MOVEMENT: Frantic Assembly

Frantic Assembly are a physical theatre company with a reputation for exceptional work. The workshop will be movement based, and will include trust games, creative tasks, and some improvisation.

fill in workshop choices form

workshop choices

sunday

CONTEMPORARY DANCE: Ludus Dance

Ludus Dance will deliver a dance workshop specifically for those new to dance. The workshop will involve a warm up, followed by the opportunity to learn some simple techniques, working towards the possibility of creating a piece.

STAGE COMBAT: Off The Ground

Off The Ground will deliver a stage combat workshop. This will include the basics needed to help you create a realistic looking fight on stage.

morning

IMPROVISATION: Waters Edge Arts

Waters Edge will deliver a fast and furious fun improvisation session, where you will have the opportunity to work with friends (old and new) on your own ideas...

FILM MAKING: Enormous Films

Enormous films will work with a small group to create a short animation/film, that will be, potentially, shown back in the foyer of the building. There may be the opportunity to film some of the ongoing work of the festival.

LE COQ WORKSHOP: Proper Job Theatre Company

Le Coq is a form of clowning that builds using gesture and movement through melodrama. This will be a dynamic, challenging workshop.

VOICE WORKSHOP: Beth Allen

Beth will deliver a Voice workshop that will help you to use your voice on stage in an effective way. She will teach you the basics of breathing – and help you to get yourself heard.

afternoon

CIRCUS SKILLS: Circus Zapperelli

Circus Zapperelli does exactly what it says on the tin! Circus Skills – tight rope walking, Diablo, juggling, uni-cycling, stilt walking and more...

SCRIPT WRITING: Action Transport Theatre Company

Kevin Dyer, resident writer of Action Transport Theatre Company will deliver a writing workshop. This workshop is for beginners, and for those who feel they have something to say. Numbers are limited on this workshop.

fill in workshop choices form

youth theatre performances

jackass
youth
theatre

out of
tune

burnley
youth
theatre

brunshaw
action
group

ego
performance
company

manx
national
youth
theatre

void physical theatre

saturday night
performance

man
handled

@ 7.30pm

drop in activities

karaoke

textile
art

clowning
&
circus skills

graffiti

internet
access

disco & party

saturday night 9.00pm - midnight
fancy dress optional